

GDI Consulting Announces Eligibility Assessment Service for OASIS Plus Self-Scoring Solicitation

ALEXANDRIA, Va. - April 12, 2023 - PRLog -- GDI Consulting, a leading provider of proposal consulting services for self-scoring solicitations to government contractors, has announced a special Eligibility Assessment Service for the OASIS Plus self-scoring solicitation. The service is designed to help government contractors assess their eligibility and score in their desired domains and make informed decisions about whether to enter this opportunity alone or seek partners to raise their scores and the number of domains.

The OASIS Plus self-scoring solicitation features 7 Small Business domains and 8 Unrestricted domains, and GDI Consulting's Eligibility Assessment Service is available for $490.00 per domain. The service provides a preliminary assessment of a contractor's eligibility and score in each domain, along with a comprehensive report that includes recommendations for improvement.

"We understand that participating in the OASIS Plus self-scoring solicitation can be a complex and challenging process, and that contractors need to make informed decisions about whether to enter this opportunity alone or seek partners," said Ab Vand, VP of Capture at GDI Consulting and an SME for self-scoring proposals. "Our Eligibility Assessment Service is designed to help contractors assess their eligibility and score in their desired domains, and make the best decision for their business."

GDI Consulting's Eligibility Assessment Service is backed by a team of experienced consultants who have a deep understanding of the OASIS Plus self-scoring solicitation and the evaluation criteria. They work closely with contractors to assess their eligibility and score in each domain, and provide actionable recommendations for improvement.

"We're proud to offer this valuable service to government contractors who are looking to participate in the OASIS Plus self-scoring solicitation," said Maron Freedy, VP of Business Development at GDI Consulting. "Our team of consultants has a proven track record of helping contractors win self-scoring contracts and succeed in the government contracting space, and we're confident that our Eligibility Assessment Service will help contractors navigate their way to win a place in OASIS Plus contract."

GDIC's OASIS Plus Eligibility Assessment service is available online at <https://online.gdicwins.com>.
